Description

A delightful program which enhances the fun and playful sense of music as:

- a setting for festive with gatherings of family, friends and culinary delights.
- an expression of irony, an antidote to time, fears and weaknesses;
- a play on the contrast between form and content;
- a getaway thanks to the suggestive and evocative effect of sound;
- an opportunity for parody, mockery and the desecration of academic rules in the name of expressive freedom;
- a musical language that embodies the "joie de vivre".

The program is combined with a CD released and distributed by Terresommerse-Rome.

DURATION: 58 min.
